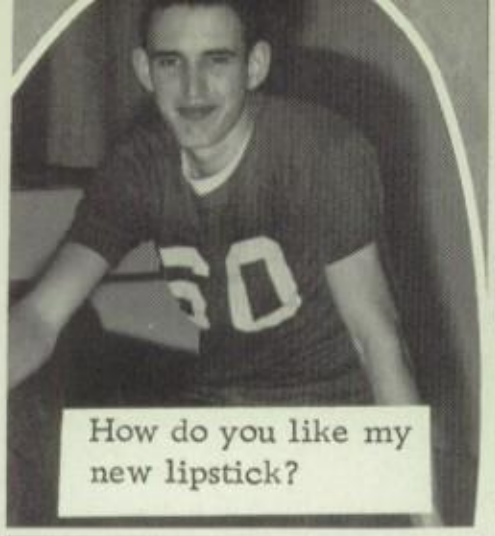
ADVERTISEMENTS

FAREWELL

The Senior Class bids "Goodbye" to Oakwood at the Nickel Plate Station.

MR. IRA MOHR, Custodian

After serving our school as custodian for many years, Mr. Mohr retired in March. The faculty and students will not forget his untiring efforts to keep our classrooms heated and our grounds landscaped.



How do you like my new lipstick?

I've cut myself both times shaving this year.

It's time to rise & shine.

GO—TEAM—GO

The Bobcats finished the season with a 17-6 record. The Cats started the season strong by winning their first eight games. In the Glandorf Holiday Tournament the Cats suffered two straight defeats at the hands of Glandorf and Ottawa Prochial.

During the last half of the season the Cats lost two regular season games, one to Jewell and one to Ayersville. Excluding tournaments the Cats had a 16-2 season record.

In the County Tournament play, the Cats beat Antwerp but lost to Payne in the County finals. Montpelier defeated the cats in the Defiance Sectional Tourney to end the season for Oakwood.

The Bobcats were 10-0 in league play for the 60-61 season to increase their winning streak in the County to 19 straight wins over the past two seasons.

During the season, the Cats had their home court winning streak snapped at 21 straight wins by Jewell.

The All County Team representatives from Oakwood were Gary Thomas, Steve Huff, and Rollie Andrews. Gary Thomas and Gary Gerken were placed on the Toledo Blade County First Team.

Gary Thomas was awarded the Most Valuable Player Award, given by the Boosters. Robert Thomas won the Oakwood News Award and Alan Kohart the Cooper's Award. Also Gary Thomas won the local foul shooting contest.

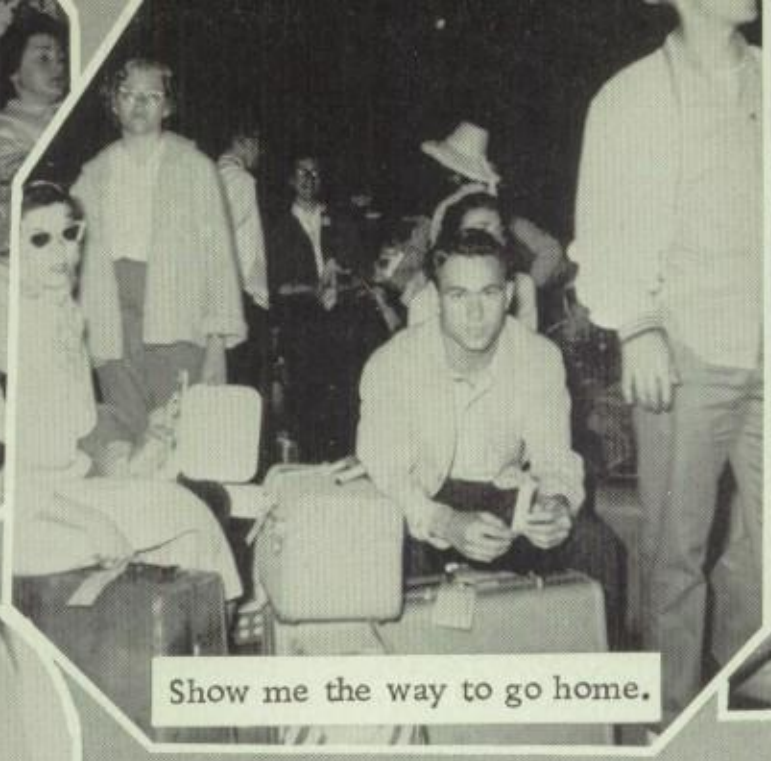
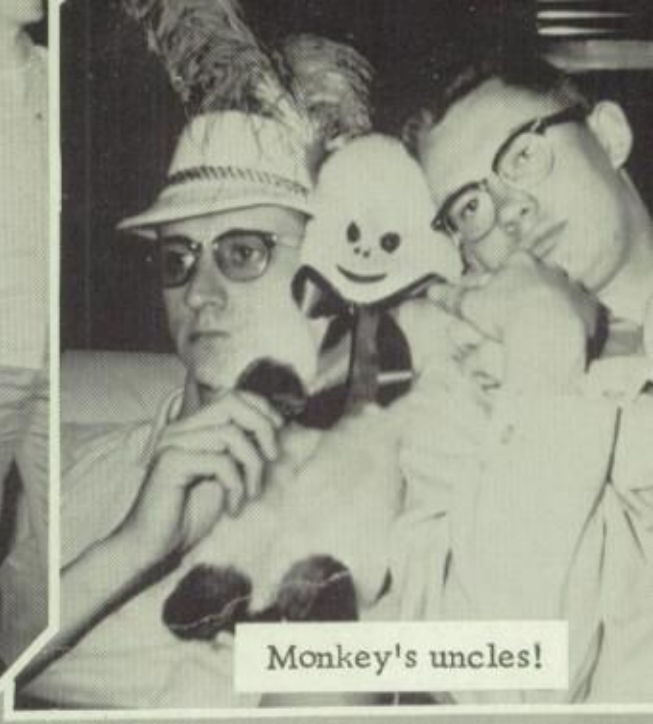
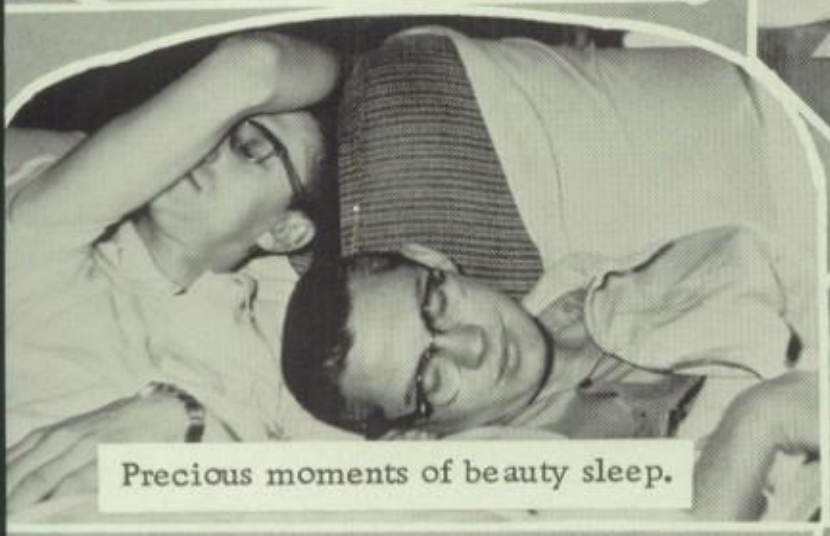
Tired & ready for home.



Show me the way to go home.

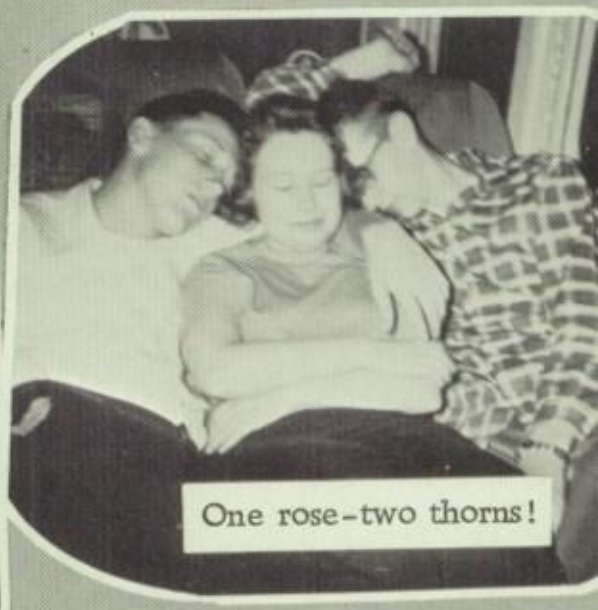


Monkey's uncles!

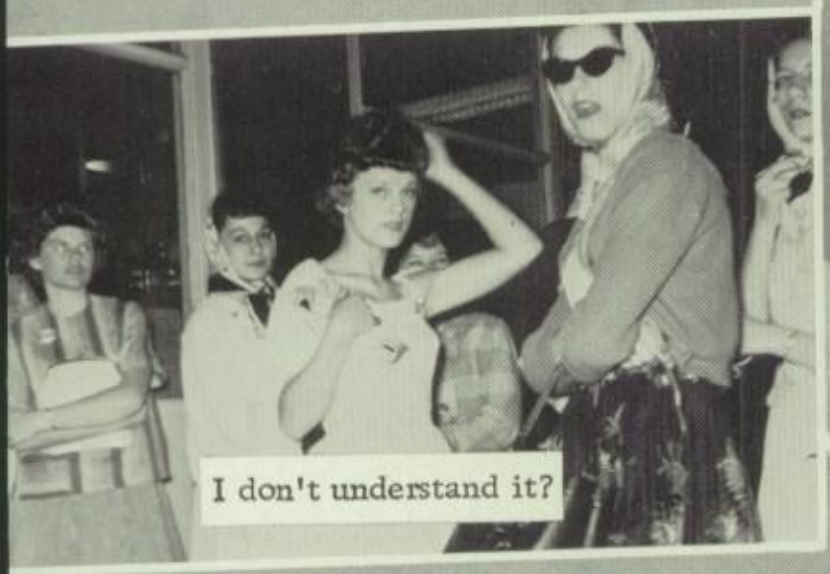


Precious moments of beauty sleep.

Jack wasn't home.



One rose-two thorns!

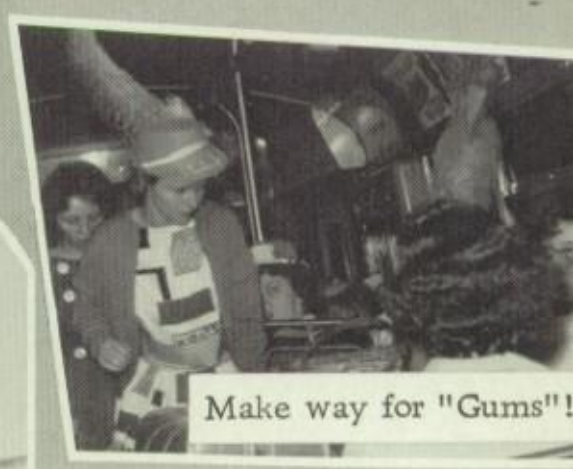


I don't understand it?

Only one way to send a message to the president!

Want to buy a suitcase?

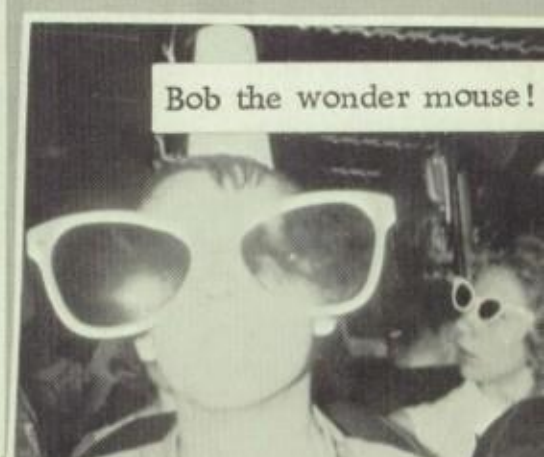
What's this for?



Make way for "Gums"!

Two more boys over here please!

With our congressman.



Bob the wonder mouse!

No, not now.

Martha Washington

Of course they won.

It's war!

SNAPS OF TRIP

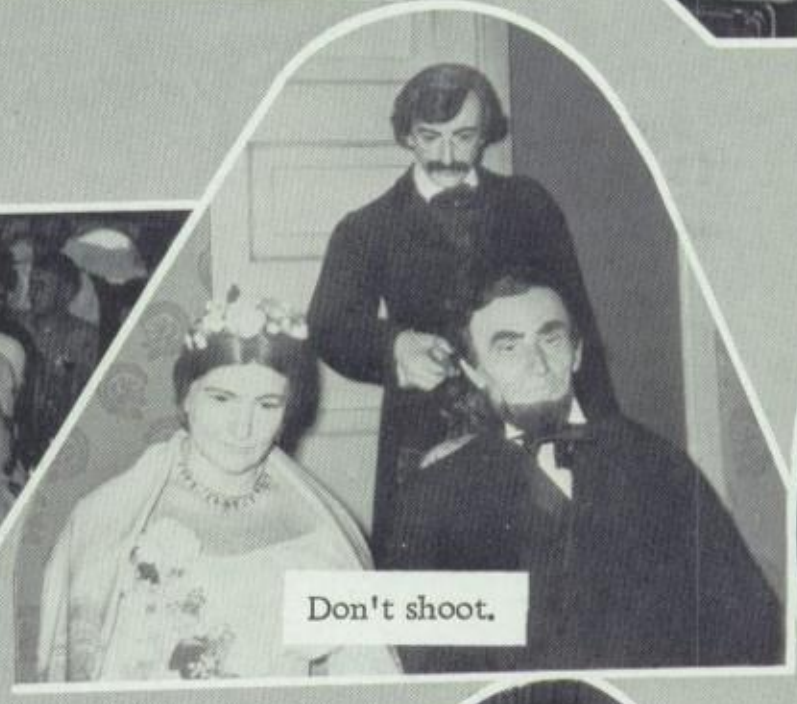
No Betty no!

The White House

Forget anything?

Careful, don't let it fall.

Goldie



Don't shoot.

Boss Man

Sorry, this seat is taken.

Oh our poor feet.

Got a run!

Thank goodness they're not ours!

CLASS WILL

ARTICLE I

ITEM I: We, the graduating class of 1961, being of shallow minds and haggared bodies, do leave to the not-so able-bodied students who are, unfortunately, following in our footsteps, those terrible rosy pink walls that stared and glared at us during the past year, the echo of all those arguments and disagreements that took place in home room, and to next year's seniors, we leave the pleasure of spying on the juniors to see if they can find out what the theme of the Prom is.

ITEM II: To the competent (?) teachers we leave the familiar task of trying to get and hold the attention of the seniors for the 180 days of school. We wish you the best of luck, we know for a fact that you've had plenty of practice.

ARTICLE II

I, Joyce Aden bequeath my ability to talk all the time and say nothing to Rita Roughton.
I, Jeanne Bennett, bequeath my ability to change tires to Suzann Shisler. Keep trying Susie.
I, Frances Bidlack, bequeath my ability to go steady to Sandy Schilt.
I, Margaret Coil, bequeath my ability to be quiet in study hall to my sister Carolyn.
I, Donna Jo Donley, bequeath my ability not to write out my shorthand notes to any of those taking shorthand next year. It's not easy girls.
I, Myra Durham, bequeath my ability to walk quietly through study hall without stepping on squeaky boards to all the teachers at O. H. S.
I, Barbara Frederick bequeath my love for grammar and "Macbeth" to the Junior Class.
I, Gary Frederick, bequeath my ability to throw erasers and get caught every time to anyone who thinks he can.
I, Edward Fry, bequeath my ability to hold my temper to Dana Goodenough.
I, Linda Fuller, bequeath my ability to keep my mouth shut while being lectured to Susie Stover.
I, Shirley Golliver, bequeath my ability to water ski in cold weather to Ronnie and Donnie Bauer.
I, Eugene Grimes, bequeath my new car to anyone who has a new pair of walking shoes.
I, Carolyn Grove, bequeath my ability to write notes in shorthand, about Mr. Outland, in government class to anyone who wants to take the chance of getting caught at it.
I, Goldie Guyton, bequeath my quietness to Brenda Dimock.
I, Karon Hahn, bequeath my ability to get boys with new cars to Beth Ann Hornish.
I, Carol Harmon, bequeath my ability to stay up all night, go to class, sleep, and never have the teacher notice it to anyone who can.
I, Donna Hunt, bequeath my ability to scrape plates in the cafeteria to anyone who wants to do it.
I, Julia Johnson, bequeath my ability to find excuses to skip Mr. Cook's study hall to whoever can get away with it.
I, Ann Keck bequeath my cheerleading ability to Steve Huff, Rollie Andrews, and Gary Gerken. Better go to Vaugnsville for lessons, boys.
I, Keith Ketner, bequeath my ability to look guilty to anyone who wants to get into trouble.
I, Gertrude Klein, bequeath my ability to be engaged 2 1/2 years and not get married to all the girls at O. H. S.
I, Dave Kohart, bequeath my ability to drive fast and not get caught to Dan Pessefall.
I, Jayne Kohart, bequeath my innocent looks to anyone who thinks they can achieve them.
I, Dana McCague, bequeath my ability to sleep in study hall to Tom Boroff.
I, Dian McCague, bequeath my ability to stay thin by running down the hall to Marilyn Goodenough.
I, Mickey Mowery, bequeath my callouses to anyone who'll sit on the bench for four years.
I, Marty Myers, bequeath my ability to throw airplanes in study hall to Glen Grunden.
I, Deloris Porter, bequeath my ability to go on dates to my cousin, Linda Porter.
I, Barbara Retcher, bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Hebbeler in fourth period study hall to Rollie Andrews, Gary Gerken, and Doug McBride.
I, Glenda Schilt, bequeath my tail bone to anyone who wants to carry and sit on a pillow for two weeks.
I, Janis Shisler, bequeath my headaches as business manager to Nylice. Have fun, I sure díd.
I, Ruth Ann Shisler, bequeath all the gripes, complaints, grouching, and headaches that go with editing the annual to Mary Lou Schwaderer and Mary Ann Beleau.
I, Gary Thomas, bequeath my ability to play basketball and stay out of trouble in study hall to all the basketball boys.
I, Bob Thomas, bequeath my ability to over-sleep and get away with it to Gary Gerken.
I, Shirley Thrasher, bequeath my ability to eat without my teeth to anyone who likes to "gum" their food.
I. Dan Waldschmidt, bequeath my ability to pass school busses at 100 miles per hour to anyone stupid enough to do it.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1957, forty-seven anxious freshmen entered the halls of Auglaize-Brown High School. As we entered our homeroom we found that Miss Williams and Mrs. Stephens were our homeroom teachers.

Those who answered the roll call were:

We elected the following officers: President, Carol Harmon; Vice President, Mary Reineck; Secretary, Carolyn Grove; Treasurer, Karen Dimock.

In October we were initiated by the sophomores making us full-fledged members of Oakwood High School.

During the year we gained a new student, Joyce Aden.

In September of 1958, we returned as sophomores and gained four new members: Eugene Grimes, Karen Hahn, Julia Johnson, and Roger Pier.

Mr. Thoburn and Mr. Clemens were our class advisor. Our officers were: President, Carol Harmon; Vice President, Mary Reineck; Secretary, Karon Hahn; Treasurer, Karen Dimock. We initiated the freshmen and worked hard at various activities.

Those not returning were Catherine Burkhart, Billie Edds, Edna Good, Dian Long, Oberdella Skeens, Twilia Oakley, Roberta Schlegel, and Ivadell Vaughn.

In September of 1959 we entered as Juniors. Those not returning were Karen Dimock, Larry McBride, and Roger Pier.

We were very busy during our Junior year, ordering our class rings of which we were very proud. In November, we presented our class play, "Dude Ranch," under the direction of Mr. Graebner. On May 7, 1960, we presented the Junior-Senior Prom with the theme "Evening in Paris." Our class officers for the Junior year were: President, Robert Thomas; Vice President, Gary Thomas; Secretary, Carolyn Grove; Treasurer, Julia Johnson; Student Council Representative, Daniel Waldschmidt. Mrs. Logan and Mr. Woodring were our advisors.

Finally in September, 1960 we entered the familiar doors of OHS as happy seniors. Mr. Rohrs was our advisor and we re-elected our junior class officers. Those not returning were Margie Ames, Leroy Bennett, Carolyn Breckler, Mary Reineck, and Carl Sherry. During the year we lost Helen Butler.

We had our Senior pictures taken and ordered our announcements and name cards. We chose scarlet and white as our class colors and the American Rose as our flower. Our motto was "Today We Follow; Tomorrow We Lead."

In April 1961, we presented our play "The Magic Touch" under the direction of Mr. Outland.

On May 6, 1961, the Juniors presented us with the beautiful prom, entitled "Stairway to the Stars," which was greatly appreciated.

On May 14, 1961, we left on our trip to Washington, D.C. We were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Our Baccalaureate was held May 21, and Commencement May 25, 1961.

As we leave our Alma Mater, we will think of some of the most pleasant times of our lives.

PRESENTING

THE 1961 OAKLEAF

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee our Alma Mater, whether far or near.

We to thee our Alma Mater, give a hearty cheer.

Lift the chorus, speed it onward, chords that never die.

Hail to thee our Alma Mater, Hail to Oakwood High.

Mary Ann,
To a real sweet girl and a nerf good friend. Even though this will be our last year of school I hope we still remain the best of friends. May you succeed in everything you attempt to do. Good luck and may God richly bless you.
Susan

To a real sweet girl. The best of always. Your Classmate

Mary Ann,
Good luck in everything you desire. May we always continue our friendship.
Your friend,
Dianne

Mary Ann,
To a real nice girl
with a sweet personality!
Good Luck!

Mary Ann
I wish you
the best of luck always!
Judy Burt

Mary Ann,
To a sweet girl, I hope you get everything you deserve.
Gary

Mary ann,
To a very nice girl who I love to see get good and mad. Though we argue at times it's all in fun.
Fighting Friend
